

MONAHAN FLAYS THE "REFORMER"

Says Muckrakers, Hysterical Editors And Demagogues Are "Undesirable Citizens."

ADDRESS AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

Believes American People, If Left Alone, Will Settle Great Questions Of Day Without Making Disastrous Mistakes.

Believing trusts of capital and trusts of labor are necessary and beneficial, James C. Monahan of Burlington, delivering an address at the Chautauqua this afternoon, attacked the methods employed by these big combinations. He considered individuals in either field as weak and incompetent but expressed his opposition to the end, earning greed of capital and labor's unreasonable demands made at the command of hot-headed leaders. "Capital and labor," he continued, "are natural allies and should be friendly at all times. They have a community of interests. Each is dependent on the other. Labor would starve without capital. And the combined capital of the world could not turn a wheel, make a pound of ore or harvest an acre of wheat were it not for labor. Between these two great forces there should be peace, not war; unity, not strikes or lockouts."

Frenzied Reformer on Rack

The yellow press, muckrakers and "frenzied reformers" were then put on the rack. "The American people," said Mr. Monahan, "are honest and will do right if let alone. But there is the rub—they are not let alone for a single day. The agency of the professional reformer, the emotional journalist and the dishonest editor of the muckraker, circulate their own version of the truth, while the crowding of the ravens of discontent are constantly ringing in the ears of the people. "And, while there is no justification, there is an excuse for the fact that sometimes, as of late, many people have been carried away by these waves of sensationalism, until in their haste and emotionality, they say, all men are liars, crafters and thieves."

Yellow Press Assailed

"Let me here define what I mean by the yellow press, the muckraker and demagogue. We have in the United States thousands of newspaper men and periodicals that are honestly fighting the people's battles. Where wrong is found to exist, they merely hold it up to public view and by sane methods, through legislative enactments, publicity and moral persuasion strive to abate these evils and right existing wrongs. There are thousands of earnest, thoughtful men, who, by voice, pen and vote, supplement the work of this class of newspaper men and periodicals and fight existing evils wherever found. And I would like to see every man in America enrolled in this army. These are the real reformers, the true friends of the people and the best guardians of their interests. "On the other hand, we have the sensational newspaper that in red ink and wood type daily feeds its readers upon the filth of the sewers. It throws the halo of the hero around the criminal and makes vice and crime attractive and romantic. It appeals to all the baser passions of the race and daily preaches the doctrine of class hatred. And too many people take this class of papers into their homes and feed upon their slush."

The Muckraker Flayed

"The muckraker starts out to discover and publish something bad or discreditable about a public man, business corporation or combination. He does not look for the truth. His object is first, a sensational article, and second, the ruin of the victim. With this muckraker he dives deep into all the stretch and rottenness he can find, and then, with his polished hand, writes an article for some 'reform' magazine, attacking the character and reputation of perhaps one of the best, purest and most conscientious public servants, and then laughs as only fiends can, while he watches his victim writhe. And despite the fact that perhaps for an entire lifetime, the victim of that foul attack had stood in the limelight, a clean, pure, upright man, too many people close one eye, shake their heads and demand that the scandal be disproven."

Agitator and Demagogue

"The agitator and the demagogue are oozings from the same poisonous pool. They are generally men who have failed in all legitimate pursuits of life, but, with an egotism as sublime as their fall is monumental, they feel their way out of an abundance of unpaid butler and grocery bills, emerge from rented or mortgaged houses, mount a platform, face an audience of their creditors and proceed to tell the commercial interests of the nation how to conduct their business. Without experience, they assume to direct; without success, they proceed to command; without knowledge, they proceed to criticize. Their motto is, 'Whatever is, is wrong.' Where the yellow press lies, they slander, and by statements, sometimes true, often half truths, and still often willful lies, they prey upon the credulity and emotions of the people. Their mission is the destruction of others and the elevation of themselves; their weapons are deception, hate, hypocrisy and hysteria, and by them, they have succeeded in turning labor against capital, class against class, section against section and community against community."

The "Call of the Wild"

"The President has been assailed for daring to do his duty. Congress has been rebuffed because it has kept within constitutional limits and the courts held up to scorn and ridicule, because of just and righteous decisions. And too many people are bred away from the boundaries of the fathers and follow this 'Call of the Wild' to the inevitable destruction that always awaits those who travel along such a road. "The publisher of the yellow press, the muckraker writer, the agitator and the demagogue are not the only real enemies of all true reform, but he is, and should be added to the list of 'Undesirable Citizens.'"

Another Reformer on Rack

"Again I repeat, the people will deal justly with the great questions now confronting us and do right by all, if let alone. And it is your duty, individually and collectively, to do so far as you can see that this is done. "For, mark you, no good, and possibly much harm, may result from a continuance of conditions existing in some portions of our country today."

Livingston a Host

Livingston, Wis., Aug. 1.—The old town pump, the swimming hole of yore, and the village common are crowded today with a happy mass of people. Livingston is welcoming its former citizens back to the old home. The celebration ends tomorrow night.

Two Score Koreans Shot Down by Japs

Another Atrocious Crime Against Girl

Series of Assaults and Murders Continued in New York City—Excitement Runs High. (By Associated Press.) New York City, Aug. 1.—(By Associated Press.)—An extremely atrocious crime against women and children was greatly increased today by the discovery of an eleven-year-old girl in the cellar of an east side tenement house. The child had been assaulted and murdered. There were marks on the throat, indicating, perhaps, that she had been strangled to death.

FRANCE READY TO FIGHT THE ARABS

Will Take Casablanca Pasha's Head If Any Europeans Are Slain In Threatened Holy War.

Paris, France, Aug. 1.—The Pasha of Casablanca will answer with his head to the French government for the general safety of the city. This is the ultimatum which the crusader "Hillie" is conveying to him. Three cruizers have been ordered to go immediately to Casablanca, where a massacre of foreigners occurred yesterday. The slaughter was the outcome of a Holy war preached by the Arabs for the extermination of all Europeans. It is expected that twenty thousand Arabs will invade Casablanca today.

An extremely interesting program has been arranged for the meeting, including straight-away mile trials, a 20-mile handicap hill climb and championship races at various distances. In the way of an added attraction there is to be a 50-mile road race over Blackstone boulevard.

WILLIAMS VS. VARDAMAN; FORMER IS THE FAVORITE

Finished Fight In Mississippi Will Be Ended By Today's Primary--Six Candidates For Governorship.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Jackson, Miss., Aug. 1.—The democratic state primary is being held throughout Mississippi today on nominations for state, district and county officers. The result of the primary will also govern the legislature in the selection of United States senators. The legislature to be chosen by the primary, and which will assemble next January, will be called upon to choose two United States senators, Senator A. J. McLaughlin, one of the incumbents, having no opposition, no interest is manifested in his affairs. His term does not expire until 1913, but in view of the fact that the legislature meets only every fourth year in regular session, the legislature of 1908 is called upon to name his successor. Senator H. D. Money, another of the incumbents, declined to again seek the senatorship because of his ill health. Governor Vardaman and Congressman John Sharp Williams are fighting for his seat and the contest has been one of the most exciting that Mississippi has experienced in many years. Both Vardaman and Williams are popular and both have strong and influential friends, who have done everything possible to advance the cause of their chief. The repeat of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution of the United States is one of Governor Vardaman's hobbies, and the people of Mississippi are with him on that proposition. But there are thousands who see no hope of ever accomplishing anything on that line, who consider all efforts in that direction futile and who believe that a man of Vardaman's temperament will never be able to bring about such a revolution as he proposes, and who really believe that he would be a more dangerous element in the senate than either Tillman or Jeff Davis. These people are openly declared for John Sharp Williams for senator. Governor Vardaman stands pat with last year's ticket.

William J. Bryan on his railroad ownership and supervision pronounced the governor is for Bryan first, last and all the time and would fix a platform to suit him. Mr. Williams, on the other hand, would build the platform to suit the people of the state with him. The proposal for the government ownership of railroads has never been received with much favor by the people of Mississippi. As before stated, the contest between Vardaman and Williams has been a most exciting one. Both candidates have been on the stump for months past and on several occasions engaged in joint debate. Unbiased onlookers express the opinion that the chances of Williams appear to be a little the brighter, though he cannot be said to have a "walkover." The endorsement of the primary means election. There is no holding the verdict of the primary, no independent candidates and no opposition to the democratic nominees. The senatorial fight has overshadowed the contest for state officers, though the latter presents many features of interest. Six candidates are fighting for the governorship. They are Jeff Truitt, Charles Scott, E. P. Noel, T. C. Sisson, Earl Brewer and E. N. Thomas. For lieutenant governor the candidates are Luther Man-ship, Wiley N. Nash and S. B. Watts. For several of the state offices there is but one candidate each and they have been declared nominated by the state committee. They are H. V. Fletcher, for attorney general; Joseph W. Power, for secretary of state; H. E. Hakesler, for commissioner of agriculture and commerce; George C. Meyers, for supreme court clerk; E. H. Nall, for land commissioner, and Wm. Adams for state revenue agent. Today's primary is equivalent to an election, but if a second primary is necessary, it will be held on August 22.

GOGGINS DECLINES PLACE ON RAILROAD COMMISSION

Refusal To Accept Appointment Announced This Afternoon--No Reason Given--Surprise To State.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Grand Rapids, Wis., Aug. 1.—Bernard R. Goggins has declined to become a member of the state railway commission. His refusal of the appointment, made by Governor James O. Davidson Tuesday, was announced this afternoon. No reason for this action was made public. Refusal Was Unexpected. The announcement will cause general surprise throughout Wisconsin. Though Mr. Goggins' appointment came rather unexpectedly to the public, it was received with satisfaction. Mr. Goggins was looked upon as a man capable of filling the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Barnes. Even Law-Partner Surprised. Even the men closest to Mr. Goggins expected him to accept. He had been at Rhinelander up till this morning and yesterday afternoon his law partner, Senator T. W. Brazee, announced that the matter was still being considered by the appointee. Mr. Brazee said refusal was possible.

In Ohio, Urbahn, O., Aug. 1.—Engineer Chamberlain, Fireman Welsner, and Brakeman Stewart were instantly killed here this morning as a result of an explosion of a boiler of a Pennsylvania freight engine.

PROMINENT MAN WAS DROWNED IN POOL

Fatality at Athletic Club House--No Particulars of His Death Known.

[By Associated Press.] Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 1.—Edmund R. Watson, president of the Northern National Bank and treasurer of the Henry Hess Brewing company, was found dead in the swimming pool of the Columbia Athletic club early today. Mr. Watson's family is away.

HONG KONG HOTEL COLLAPSED TODAY

Old Part of Hostelry Frequented by America Now in Ruins--Some Casualties Probable.

[By Associated Press.] Hongkong, China, Aug. 1.—The old part of the Hongkong Hotel, the principal hostelry here, collapsed today. It is believed that there were some casualties. The hotel was frequented by tourists and was popular with Americans going to and from Manila. Balch Family Reunion. North Beverly, Mass., Aug. 1.—The descendants of John Balch, who emigrated to America in 1823, held a family reunion here today at the old Balch homestead. The Balch house, which is still practically in its original condition, was built in 1638 and is still occupied by one of the descendants of John Balch. There are supposed to be about 5,000 members of the Balch family now living in the United States.

REFORM FOR NEW MEXICO

GOV. CURRY TOLD TO STRIVE FOR REFORM IN THE GRAFT TANGLE

President Roosevelt Instructs New Executive to Give the Territory Clean Government.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 1.—Reforms in the territorial government of New Mexico are to be inaugurated upon the arrival in Santa Fe of George Curry, who has just returned from the Philippines to assume office.
 President Roosevelt conferred with Gov. Curry for two hours Wednesday and sent him on his way thoroughly imbued with the necessity of dealing with an iron hand until the tangle of intrigue and graft in Mexico has been straightened out.
 "Clean government is what the president wants," said Gov. Curry leaving Oyster Bay, "and that is all I shall do my best to establish."
 Conferences on the situation in the territories were continued at more than 100 after the departure of Curry, as Chief Justice Kenesaweed, Arizona, and Federal Judge J. R. Hodge, of Porto Rico, formerly in congress from New Mexico, were luncheon guests of the president.
 Judge Hodge told the president the tax valuation in New Mexico had been outrageously juggled by the road and mining interests. He said that the value of one mine is counted as the tax assessment for the whole territory and that the actual value of the railroads in the territory more than double the entire tax valuation of all property.
 Judge Kent, whose friendship the president dates back to the "lego days," said his visit was of a social character.

BELFAST FULL OF TROUBLE

Rioting by Strikers and Mutinies Will Be Suppressed.

DOCTORS' MISTAKES

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sold often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-anxious doctor, separate diseases, for which he assumes them to be such, prescribing pills and remedies. In reality, they are all of one nature, caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made, doctors suffering with large bills, and the patient, after long treatment, but probably worse.

But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-anxious doctor, separate diseases, for which he assumes them to be such, prescribing pills and remedies. In reality, they are all of one nature, caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made, doctors suffering with large bills, and the patient, after long treatment, but probably worse.

"KEEP GOOD COMPANY"

BEN-HUR

FLOUR

Is select. It helps you to do your work right. Where you have made good Bread and Biscuit from other flour you can make better Bread and Biscuit from Ben Hur. We believe this because we know it. So will you if you try Ben Hur Flour. Never was anything more wrong than to suppose that all flour is alike. Ben Hur Flour will show you where the difference lies. It will show you where money can be saved by buying a flour which will make from 40 to 60 loaves of Bread more to the barrel than can be made from other flour. If you want your Bread sweet and deliciously wholesome, your Biscuit light and appetizing, your Pie-crust, Cake and Pastry made with a finish and delicacy that makes a table famous; then buy Ben Hur Flour.

New Head for School for Blind.
Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 1.—Gov. Deussen, after a conference with the trustees of the Illinois school for the blind, Wednesday appointed Dr. G. W. Jones superintendent to succeed J. H. Freeman, resigned. Dr. Jones has been in charge of the Oregon school for the blind.

Short Lived Coffee Blossoms.
Coffee plantations in bloom are now white, and exude a delicious odor, but the blossoms die in a day.

Some Famous "Dunces."
Nathaniel Hawthorne was the dunce of his class. Walter Scott was told by his professor that he was a dunce. Both Napoleon and Wellington were dull boys at school, and when Clive was Plassy his father said he did not think the boyish had so much sense. Chatterbox, the leader of the Disruption, was expelled from his school as an incorrigible dunce. Chatterbox was sent home as a fool, and Leigh Hunt

Newton, the great oriental scholar, Sir William Jones, and Robert Morrison, who compiled the immortal Chinese Bible and dictionary, were all regarded as extremely dull boys.—Sunday Magazine.

GOOD ROADS

Rock county is to have at least a sample of good roads. The government experts are here and will shortly begin work demonstrating to the people of the county that roads that will last for generations can be built at a moderate cost and easily. The problem of good roads is one that has just begun to confront the citizens of the middle western states. This section of the country has been settled largely through the influence and aid of the railroads and the problem of good roads has not been a paramount issue. In a recent issue of a Deloit paper the crookedness of their main streets was explained by saying the early settlers followed the trails of the cow-paths and what is true of Deloit is also true of a large part of the county. Trails ran through the country, made by the Indians or early settlers, and these have in many cases been the nucleus of the present roads. While Uncle Sam will not attempt to straighten out this tangle he will show how the roads themselves can be made in excellent thoroughfares at a moderate cost. It is a lesson that can be taught to all interested in the subject and it is to be hoped that the object lesson to be given by the department of roads will not be lost sight of and its influence felt in future construction of rural and city driveways.

ALABAMA'S SORROW

Not within the history of this republic has any one state been deprived of both its representatives in the United States Senate within so short a space of time as has Alabama. Within eight weeks Alabama has lost John Tyler Morgan and Edmund Winston Pettus, its two Senators. Never in the annals of the Senate have two men, equal in years and character and political vigor, represented one state as have these two. Death has claimed them both. Not only does their native state—Alabama—but the entire nation, mourn their loss. Both served with distinction in the ranks of the southern army and both worked like men to rehabilitate the south after its sad and mistaken struggle. The state recognized their worth and honored them and now the nation unites in sorrowing with them for their loss.

GEORGIA'S NEW MOVE

Down in the state of Georgia they feel they have solved the race question by the passage of an absolute prohibition act which bars negroes from securing liquor. In addition to this they have laid certain restrictions upon the negro voters, making property and intelligence a quality for the right of franchise. Georgia may have solved the much-mooted question for good and all and according to reports from the Kone Star state the people will have to starve if it is strictly lived up to. However, it is up to Georgia to make the trial and the results will be watched with interest by the rest of the states below the Mason and Dixon line and some northern communities as well. The race question does not bother Janesville, but it may some day and it is well to be prepared.

the nucleus of a Zoo can be started with the twin bears and the papers where subscriptions can be placed are to be found at the drugstores and four banks.

While New York society is said to have deserted the city of Father Kulerbocker, a son of an old family, Harry Thaw, still remains confined in his quarters by the Tombs, a crime anti-toxine prescribed by "Dr." Jerome.

Mrs. Logan Tucker has failed to make the sensational charges she brought against her husband, a paymaster in the United States army, stand up and now will have to bring a suit for divorce to air her troubles.

It is understood that Haywood can have either a theatrical or a Chautauqua engagement if he desires. Some people can not see the difference.

It is remarked that Debs and Haywood and Meyer and Pettibone did not send Roosevelt postal cards asking him to run for the Presidency once more.

Judge Lindsey's attack upon Colorado from the Chautauqua platform has stamped his kind of reform with the usual branding iron, Sensationalism.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt will dine in Newport, but it is safe to say there will be no monkey present to bring up the question of nature-fakery.

Down in Missouri a man has been decided to be insane because he ate grass. How about those people who eat sawdust and prepared hay as breakfast foods.

Now that a liquid which prevents decay has been discovered perhaps the bloom of youth may be kept forever on the cheeks of otherwise faded "peaches."

Now the powder trust is to be investigated by Uncle Samuel. Dear old Uncle Sam means to get after all these naughty trusts one by one.

Down in Illinois they think they have the only real, true, genuine, blue, yard long and a yard wide Presidential boom in Joe Cannon.

Pettibone does not feel he is being treated right. Here is Haywood cleared and Meyer out on bail, while he must stay in jail.

The Ohio republicans have thoughtfully given Mr. Foraker the core of the political apple while Mr. Taft takes the rest.

Coney Island has decided that the fireworks question was overdone in its million-and-a-half display last week.

Colorado's Governor does not feel that his state can be so very bad when he was elected its Governor.

So Mayor Busch of Chicago has been forced to sell his coal business because he has not time to run it.

Foraker is in trouble in Ohio and does not see how he can be for Taft when he is for Foraker.

New York is being swept by a wave of crime that is putting the Chicago things to shame.

Milwaukee's Boy Mayor has not made any recent outbreaks this past week.

Think of a New York policeman being dismissed for being a coward!

PRESS COMMENT.

Or at Tossing Coarse Abuse.
Chicago Tribune: The Rev. Dr. Quayle is a man of much originality and versatility, but the Rev. William Sunday probably can beat him playing baseball.

Prof. Starr, of Course.
Milwaukee Journal: The star-eyed Goddess of Reform rather overreached herself in the Chicago professor's advocacy of no clothing for children until the age of 10.

Hau vs. Thaw.
Beloit News: It took five days in the German courts to try and condemn Hau. It took two months to try Thaw and the trial ended in a disagreement.

In Communication Again.
New York Commercial: Nikola Tesla deserves well of the tired listener to the other fellow's troubles. All one needs now, conspicuously placed on his desk, is an obnoxious paper-weight "Go tell it to Mara!"

Prize Slow-Mail Story.
Exchange: A Wisconsin man has just received a letter mailed to him in Norway in 1875. Show this to your wife and convince her that it is not your fault if her letter failed to reach its destination in proper time.

Meets With Popular Approval.
Madison Democrat: Of all the answers to the New York World's inquiry, "What is a democrat?" that of the Nashville American: "A man who drinks when he's invited," seems to have the largest popular endorsement.

From Hayward, of Course.
Evening Wisconsin: Sixty-seven and one-half pounds is a record set by a muskellunge story from Hayward, Wisconsin, that will put a heavy strain upon the conscience of future piscatorial romances and incidentally upon popular credulity.

Shame on Vespasian!
Madison Democrat: Whether or not Vespasian Warner is telling the truth—that his stepmother was of negro blood—it came with poor grace at this late hour and only when a fortune is involved. Shame upon one who makes such a defense!

A Man of Straw.
Bryant's Comment: The Washington Herald, noting the attacks of Collier's Weekly on Vice President Fairbanks, ventures the opinion that Collier's is "dubbing around on a dead card." We confess ignorance to the technical meaning of the expression, but it sounds about right.

Visions of Wealth.
Evanston Review: Since one of the young reporters around Lake Kegonsa found a beautiful pearl in a clam shell, a few days ago, the rest of the leisure bodies are busily engaged in unearthing and opening every clam shell that can be found. The pearl in question was sold to T. H. Earle of Edgerton, for eighty dollars, and is what is known as a blue pearl.

Sympathy All With Florence.
Clinton Banner: Miss Florence Dugan, the ex-Chilton young lady who shot George Schumacher has not been obliged to remain in her cell at the county jail all the time these last days. Of late she has been employed in the kitchen at the jail and at different times has been out riding in the city and country. Miss Dugan's health has not been good since her arrest and kindness on the part of Sheriff Fisher has aided her much. Schumacher remains about the same at the hospital and at $50 per week it looks as if Rock county would have a good sized bill as the result of his keeping there.

Creed and Political Preference.
Madison Journal: The Catholic Union and Times published in Buffalo, N. Y., criticizes Gov. Hughes of that state for not appointing a Catholic on his public utilities commission. This omission, says the Catholic paper, will arise to plague Gov. Hughes when he seeks further political honors.

A more offensive criticism and threat than this could hardly be made. It manifests a spirit as narrow as it is unpatriotic. Why should Gov. Hughes have selected a Catholic, because he was a Catholic, any more than he would appoint a Methodist because he was a Methodist. The New York Utilities Commission is not an ecclesiastical body, and it would have shown the governor in a bad light, had he indulged in small politics to the extent of dividing up the job according to the creeds professed by the aspirants.

It is foolish utterances like that of the Catholic paper, which lays the church open to the charge of meddling in politics, and thus lessens its influence.

SOUTH SPRING VALLEY

South Spring Valley, July 30.—Mrs. John Croft and daughter Bertha and son Edward of Plattville, who have been the guests of Mrs. Olin the past week, returned to Plattville Wednesday morning.

Mrs. S. L. Gaster returned home from Iowa Tuesday.

James Fitch spent Monday evening at John Huff's.

John Barrett of Delavan and John Sors of this place are doing the carpenter work on Frank Hafeman's barn.

G. Hanson is erecting a milkhouse. Alva Ruth Douglas is spending the week with her grandmother of South Spring Valley.

Mr. Hallow delivered stock in Orfordville Monday.

The farmers have been very busy haying and harvesting grain the past week.

Nelson Olin and sister Marcella and Miss Croft were in Brodhead Saturday night.

Richmond and Foster furnished the music for the dance Saturday night at Martin Hanson's.

Medical Civil Service.

Medicine has as its object the treatment of disease and the relief of suffering irrespective of the social status or financial position of the patient, says the London Hospital. Existing conditions of practice make well-nigh impossible the attainment of this object, and it is desirable alike in the interests of the public and of the rank and file of the profession that some more satisfactory organization of the conditions of practice should be found. Nothing short of a civil service will meet the requirements of the situation. There is a growing feeling, if we mistake not, inside as well as outside the profession, in favor of this solution of the problem, and there is no question that this feeling will continue to grow as there is more full appreciation of the truth that, apart from humanitarian considerations, the economic advantages are vastly in its favor.

To Prevent Rust.

To keep iron and steel goods from rust, states the Mechanical World, dissolve half an ounce of camphor in one pound of hog's lard; take off the scum, mix as much black lead as will give the mixture an iron color, iron and steel goods rubbed over with this mixture and left with it on 24 hours, and then dried with a linen cloth will keep clean for months.

Flowers and Trees.

Flowers are so small, so easily cultivated, so brilliant, so personal, that they have gained almost more than their share of human attention, while their elder sisters, the trees, keep their unobtrusive estate and minister untriflingly to our comfort with little praise or recognition.—Carmen.

Habit.

It is the law of habit that makes roads everywhere through the pathless in this universe; where ever thou findest a made road, there was the law of habit active—honored in its degree. Granted the road is not the best, yet how much better it is than no road!—Thomas Carlyle.

Advice Worth the Money.

Advice is costly. The other day a man with eye trouble paid a fee of $10.00 to the doctor who told him merely to stop smoking. That advice was worth it to the patient, and he paid it gladly, for he recovered his sight.

French Working Women.

Of the 37,730,000 population of France, statistics record a working population of 19,750,075, of whom 8,805,510 are women and girls. The number engaged in agricultural pursuits is 8,176,669, of whom 2,658,952 are women. Of the 1,882,620 people engaged in commerce, 689,999 are women, and of the 1,015,039 people employed in domestic pursuits 791,174 are females. Those engaged in industrial pursuits furnish employment to 5,819,855 people, of whom 2,124,942 are women. The percentages of females employed in four branches of labor are: Agriculture, 28; commerce, 35; domestic pursuits, 77; and learned professions, 33.

O'Donagan's Tact.

A story Earl Stirling, of the Players' company, repeats frequently is of an Irishman who prided himself upon his delicacy and tact. One day when a boy was killed in the quarry where the Irishman worked, he told the men to leave everything in his hands; he would break the news to the boy's mother as it should be done. He went home, put on a black suit and tie, and started for the mother's shanty. "Good mornin', ma'am," he said. "Tis the sad accident yor boy's gold watch has met wid." "Why," said the mother, "Tom never had a gold watch." "Sure, an' that's lucky," said the diplomat, "for twenty tons of rock just fell on him."

LAWYERS THEN AND NOW.

Old-Timers Had Little Difficulty in Entering Profession.

The young man who wants to be a lawyer nowadays has a much harder road to travel than he who wished to adopt the honorable profession in days gone by. As a rule, he has to take a several years' course in one of the law schools of the state, then pass the state bar examination, which is not planned to fill the profession with blockheads. "Formerly," said Mr. John P. Poe, now the oldest instructor in point of service—at the University of Maryland Law School, and former attorney general, "all a young man had to do was to read law in some lawyer's office. Then he went before the examining committee, which asked him a few questions, after he had been vouchered for by the lawyer under whose guidance his 'studies' had been pursued. These questions, as a rule, were kept in the pigeonhole of the judge's desk, and if the aspirant for professional honors was very ambitious he could go and see them beforehand and prepare himself for them. When my father went up for examination he was asked two questions, 'How many volumes is Blackstone bound in?' which he answered satisfactorily, and 'Can you tell the difference between whiskey and brandy?' He professed ability to discriminate and was passed. The men who became great lawyers in those days did so because they were naturally lawyers, not because of the training they received."

Clean, bright table linen adds a great deal to the success of formal or informal affairs. The average "wash woman" knows little about the proper way of laundering linens.

There's a fine art about it that can only be developed by constant practice, such as we have.

Let us show you, William Kuhlow, the expert horse-shoer, is now located at No. 10 First street. Mr. Kuhlow does all kinds of repair work, heavy and light forging, and sets rubber tires on wheels of all kinds. Call at his shop when you want this kind of work done right.

TRUST BUSTING

The most popular man in the hearts of the American people today is President Roosevelt.

Why?

Because he stands for the "square deal" to the common people as well as to the corporations.

He takes the side of the people who need things and against the combinations that would take advantage of their needs, to extort undue gains.

These are days when lots of men find it to their profit to combine and raise prices.

In Dentistry, Dr. Richards of Janesville holds aloof from all local combines and maintains his prices on a living, reasonable basis.

One lady recently saved $17 on her dental bill by selecting him to do her dental work.

He does the BEST of work. His prices won't jar you.

FIFTY DAYS IN JAIL FOR THEFT

James Foley, Who Borrowed Boarding-car Companion's Best Clothes Without Permission, Gets Severe Sentence.

"These pants, the coat, and the shoes are yours but so help me, God, I didn't take your necktie and shirt!" exclaimed James Foley in the municipal court room this morning when Peter Peterson, a boarder-car companion on the C. & N. W. bridge crew at work between here and Avoca, pointed an accusing finger at him.

Foley is a single man about 37 years of age and came here from Madison. He had been at work about a week and when the city crew for the lights and galleys came over him last evening he was at first puzzled as to how he was to compare the excursion, as his only garments were covered with mud.

But the suit of Sunday-go-to-meetings hanging alongside of a neighboring bunk quickly suggested a way and without asking permission he quickly borrowed them. Late in the evening he was picked up in a state of blissful intoxication by Officer Mason and escorted to the police station.

Noting that he had no intention of stealing the clothes, and that it had been his intention to buy some of his own before he "got laid out cold," he nevertheless entered a plea of "guilty."

Judge Fifield sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 and $2.50 costs or spend not exceeding fifty days in the county jail and he of necessity chose the latter course.

DELEGATES ELECTED TO TOBACCO MEETING

Object of Meeting to Be Held in Chicago is Encouragement of Competition Outside of Trust.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the tobacco department of the Wisconsin State Union of the A. & F. the following delegates were elected to represent the state at a conference of the Independent Tobacco Manufacturers and Clear Makers to be held in Chicago: H. E. Hansen, Milton, Rock county; J. C. Hansen, Deerfield, Dane county; C. W. McCarthy, Edgerton, Rock county; H. S. Pomroy, Edgerton, Rock county; Lars O. Loun, Cambridge, Dane county; Theodore Simpson, Taylor, Jackson county; and S. D. Knapp, Madison, Dane county. The object of this meeting is to encourage the independent manufacturers to maintain competition which is the life of trade.

It has been apparent of late that the government has taken steps to eliminate the objects of the trusts. It would seem possible that the combined efforts of the producers, the independent manufacturers and the government could maintain the natural prices based upon the laws of supply and demand.

INJUNCTION ASKED AGAINST OFFICIALS

Asks for Permanent Injunction Restraining Town from Making Certain Public Improvements.

To restrain the town of Milton from making certain public improvements in Milton Junction an application for a permanent injunction has been made to Court Commissioner M. P. Richardson of this city by E. C. McGowan, a Milton Junction merchant, through his attorney, L. E. Gottle of Edgerton. Arguments were heard before Commissioner Richardson Tuesday and he has taken the case under advisement until Saturday when he will probably render a decision. The petition for injunction enumerates a motion to prohibit H. P. Crossman from laying $1000 worth of cement sidewalks half of the expense to be borne by the town and half by the property-owners benefited, a motion restraining the fulfillment of a contract between the town and Harry Hayes for the furnishing of oil for street lighting, a motion for restraining the town from keeping the contract with William Dorn to light the street lamps, and restraining H. P. Crossman from laying $200 worth of crosswalks. The petition further asks that the town be enjoined not to levy a tax for the purpose of defraying the expense to be incurred by said contracts. It is said that Mr. McGowan's motive in making application for the injunction is a grievance that he harbors against the town for refusing to place a water tank on Merchant's Row last year which resulted in the loss of a large sum of money to him.

MYSTERY OVER MAN'S DEATH ON ST. PAUL

It is Now Alleged a Woman Pushed Ed. Flannery Off Train Near Browntown Tuesday Night.

Did Edward Flannery meet death tonight last by accidentally falling from the west-bound St. Paul train two miles east of Browntown or was the Alton Point of division or was he pushed from the rapidly moving train by a woman who is said to have been standing on the same platform from which the man fell? A report reached here this morning stating that suspicion rested on an Argyre woman who is alleged to have pushed Flannery from the train. It was also stated that Flannery made a statement on his death bed that he was forced from the car platform by a woman who was standing close by him when he fell. Flannery's two legs were fractured, part of one heel was torn loose and a hip was badly cut in the accident. His back was bruised which indicated that he had fallen on his back as he rolled down the steep embankment along the railroad track. Flannery was partly conscious at times before he died and it was during one of these periods that he is alleged to have said he was pushed from the train. No arrest had been made of the accused woman up to noon today and the mystery which hangs over the man's death has not been cleared up. The remains will be taken tomorrow morning to Broadhead for burial.

ORE HANDLERS BACK AT WORK ON DOCKS

Two Hundred Forty-Three on Duty at Regular Hour This Morning—More Returning.

MAY SEND TROOPS TO THE IRON RANGE

THREE INVESTIGATORS SENT THERE BY GOV. JOHNSON.

PETRIELLA IS WARNED

Ore Handlers at Duluth Vote to Return to Work—Neither of Their Demands Is Conceded.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 1.—After a consultation with his advisers Wednesday afternoon, Gov. Johnson decided to send personal representatives to the iron range to investigate and report to him whether or not it would be advisable to send state troops there. The governor's reports regarding the situation have been of so conflicting a character that this course of action was deemed necessary.

This announcement was made after Frank B. Kellogg, attorney for the steel corporation, had been in consultation with the governor for some time.

The companies of the First regiment, most of whom are located in the Twin cities, practically have been under waiting orders for several days. Adj. Gen. Wood returned from Camp Lake View Wednesday.

Three Men Are Sent

Gov. Johnson said Wednesday night that he had sent three men to the iron range to investigate conditions, but declined to give their names. The governor in the afternoon sent the following to Petriella, the miners' leader, in answer to a telegram from Petriella:

"St. Paul, Minn., July 31, 1907. T. Petriella: The mining companies state that it is not true that they have refused to pay the men their June wages; that they are willing to pay all the men anything coming to them; they also state it is not true that their armed employees or deputies have been holding meetings or prevented them from holding meetings therein. Any resistance of the kind you threaten would call for armed interference by me, when all men alike will be protected in their liberty and property. John A. Johnson."

Ore Handlers' Strike Ended

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 1.—Shortly before two o'clock Wednesday afternoon the ore dock workers, who have been on a strike for recognition of the union and a raise in pay, voted to return to work. Neither of the issues raised by the men was granted by the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad and the men will return to work Thursday morning. Their status will be the same as it was the day they voted to strike. All of the employees will be taken back by the company without prejudice and the pay they have been receiving, under a verbal agreement with the company which would not have expired until October 31, next, will continue.

TELLS ABOUT TRAIN ROBBERY.

Tower Confesses Guilty Knowledge, and Implicates Three Men.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 1.—George Tower, under arrest here for complicity in the hold-up of the North Coast Limited on the Northern Pacific May 7, and the murder of Engineer Clow, Wednesday confessed knowledge of the crime. He lays the murder to a suspect held at Columbia River, Ore.

Tower implicated three men whom he calls "Joe" Gordon, O. C. Hastings and "Dutch" Gordon and "Dutch," says Tower, were the actual robbers, but he allowed them to use his room in a local lodging house as headquarters. He says Gordon threatened to kill him if he betrayed them. Tower is 22 years of age. He says his parents reside in Galeburg, Ill.

Britt Beats Battling Nelson.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—Jimmy Britt, of San Francisco, gained the decision over Battling Nelson, of Hagerstown, Ill., at the end of 20 rounds of as fast and pretty fighting as has been seen in San Francisco in many years, Wednesday night. At no time was either man in danger of a knock-out until near the end of the last round, when Britt's right and left swings and uppercuts, which he landed one after another at will on Nelson's face, all but put the Dane down and out.

Magoon Forbids Duels in Cuba.

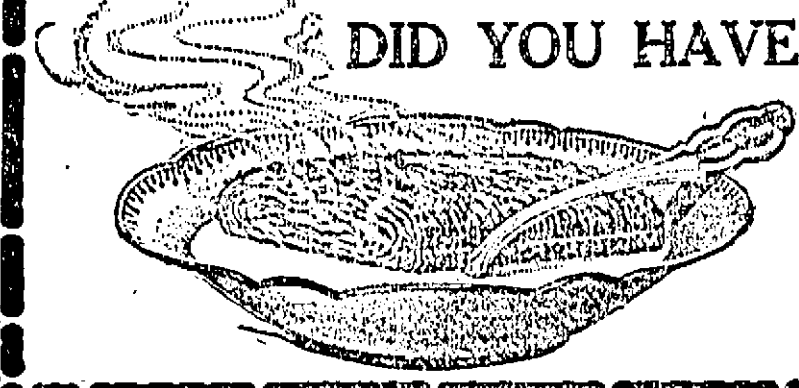

Havana, Aug. 1.—Duelling no longer will be tolerated by the provisional government. In consequence of a recent encounter between Cuban journalists, in which one was slightly hurt, Gov. Magoon has given orders to the chief of the secret police to exercise the utmost vigilance to prevent similar hostile meetings. Gov. Magoon declares that if the present law is inadequate to check the practice of duelling, he will issue a drastic decree.

Naval Cadet Is Drowned.

Jackson, Mich., Aug. 1.—Claude Heywood, aged 20 years, who had been attending the naval academy at Annapolis for the past two years, and who was at home here on leave, was drowned Wednesday at Clark's lake, while sailing. A high wind was blowing and in some manner his boat was capsized. Heywood was evidently struck by the boom or mast and stunned, as his body did not rise to the surface.

The Prolific Rabbit.

In some countries the rabbit produces seven families in the course of a year.

Coming Attractions.

"Uncle Josh Perkins," a rural play that appears at the Myers Theatre on Friday, Aug. 2, possesses much that cannot often be said in referring to productions bearing similar titles. Its motive and plot being entirely different. In "Uncle Josh Perkins" the author has reversed the usual order of things and has furnished a story that does not hinge on a mortgage or a stolen deed. The play opens in New York City and closes on "Uncle Josh's" farm, up in Vermont in which the characters it is said, get as close to nature as possible, making it unusually lifelike and realistic to the auditor. The company, it is declared, is away above the average and the specialties as strong as are presented in the best vaudeville houses in the country.

"Who are they?"

This is the unbidden query that rises in the minds of nine-tenths of those who witness the performances of the men and women of the Barnum & Bailey circus. In fact the relationship between the various "families" or "troups" of performers in the circus is a matter of universal curiosity. In the circus company, performers who present their acts in unison are, in the majority of instances, "killed" as "brothers" or "sisters" or "families." Whether their relationship is one of fact or expediency is a constant source of inquiry to the public. Another of most equally interesting sources of wonder is the pedigree of the circus artists. Why are they? Where do they come from? How did they become circus performers?

There are a few instances in which these queries, truthfully answered, would not reveal some interesting and curious facts. The "Grunathos Sisters" for instance, are not all sisters. They are, however, all blood relatives. To one who knows, the relationship may been noted for the number and cleverness of its girls. There have been Meers Sisters for so many generations that it would take a book of genealogies to keep the record. As far back as the days of the Astley circus they were in evidence. The latest claimants to the title are as dainty and clever as any of their predecessors.

Although young girls they are married. Oulka is the wife of Dan Ryan, the clown. Marie in private life is known as Mrs. George Brown. Her husband is also a circus clown.

In the Carmen Troupe of high-wire acrobats several families are represented, but they are all connected by blood or marriage. Two of the cleverest girls in the troupe are cousins, but look enough alike to be sisters.

Josef De Mott and Louise Sweeney are sisters. The former has the distinction of being the only somersault equestrienne in the world. Her contract with Barnum & Bailey obligates her to accomplish at least three somersaults on a swiftly-moving horse at each performance of the show. She is the wife of Charles Robinson. Her sister is the wife of Robert Stickney, Jr., and she and her husband are among the most daring and skillful whitewall riders in America.

The Vorlop Troupe of Tourbillon dancers comprises seven agile German girls, all of whom are related. Rosa Huettermann, the teenage rider, is a Bohemian woman. Outside of the circus she is Mme. Cesar Guillotti. She is the daughter of Gustav Huettermann, who, during his long career, has taught equestrianism in nearly every important royal court in Europe. In recent years, Herr Huettermann has conducted a riding school under the patronage of nobility of Prague, Bohemia. He also enjoys a pension from the Emperor in consideration of his many years of service in the imperial family.

The Siegrist-Silbon Troupe of acrobats comprises two families who are related by marriage, and two young girls who are cousins of Tola Siegrist, the head of the "family."

The Rooney's, the American equestrians, are Mr. and Mrs. John Rooney in private life. Fred Lodgett and Balle Julian are also among the list of married folks. Both were figuratively speaking, born in the circus, and loved and loved under the circus canopy. There are, in fact, among the performers very few who are not either married or in companies with members of their own families. Isabelle Butler, the young and comely American girl who has created a furore by driving a somersault-turning aerial automobile, is the wife of Tom Butler, the famous champion bicyclist.

One of the recent additions to the circus company is Pauline Josephine Koubeck. At least, that is the name by which she is known on the bills. In her family circle she is Mme. Manuel Herzog. Her husband is the notably clever impresario of high-school horses, whose equine performances contribute so much to the pleasure of that numerous element in the audience that always delights in trained horse displays. Pauline Koubeck is an unusually pretty woman. She and her husband come from Dresden, the capital of Saxony. She has discovered the art of alluring and attractive costuming and in the circus she is known as the "Little Dresden Fashion Plate."

Ella Bradna, the equestrienne, is a Swiss girl. She retains the name of her husband, Fred Bradna, who is a well-known equestrian director.

These glimpses of the "real" men and women of the circus might be extended without limit. Those that have

DEGRADED FOR COWARDICE

NEW YORK POLICEMAN STRIPPED OF SHIELD AND EJECTED.

Remarkable and Dramatic Scene Similar to That When Capt. Dreyfus Was Disgraced.

New York, Aug. 1.—A remarkable scene, closely paralleling that memorable one in Paris when Capt. Alfred Dreyfus was publicly degraded before the French army was enacted in the trial room at police headquarters Wednesday.

For the first time in more than thirty years, a patrolman had been adjudged guilty of cowardice. He is Stephen S. Walsh, who, according to the charge made against him, last week fled from an armed man who had shot and killed a woman.

The keen interest with which the unusual case was followed rose to a point of dramatic intensity when Police Commissioner Bingham, who had presided personally at the trial, announced in a voice choked with emotion, that the charge against the unfortunate man had been proved. Then the commissioner turned to Inspector Richard Walsh, in whose district Stephen Walsh was a patrolman, but who is no relative of the disgraced man, and directed the inspector to strip Walsh of his shield and uniform buttons. The crowd looked on in wonder and excitement as the inspector advanced to perform his unpleasant task. The disgraced man stood still and offered no resistance as the shield was unclipped from his breast, but when the inspector started to detach the buttons of the uniform Stephen Walsh stepped back and appealed to his attorney against any further humiliation being put upon him in the presence of his former comrades.

Commissioner Bingham, who was laboring under great excitement, then interposed and directed the inspector to conduct his former subordinate to the steps of the police building and eject him. Stephen Walsh refused to Bank Cashier Arrested. Philadelphia, Aug. 1.—Morris L. Hartman, former cashier of the Farmers National bank, of Hovetown, Pa., which was closed by the controller of the currency on July 20, was arrested Wednesday charged with misapplying the funds of the institution, making false entries in the books of the bank and falsifying his reports to the controller. He was held in $10,000 bail.

Secretary Strauss at Honolulu. Honolulu, Aug. 1.—Oscar Strauss, secretary of commerce and labor, arrived here Wednesday from San Francisco on the steamer Siberia. He was greeted with the military salute accorded to a member of the president's cabinet, and was met at the dock by federal and territorial officials and the territorial militia.

One Killed in Train Wreck. Jonesboro, Ill., Aug. 1.—The engine and two coaches of a fast southbound Mobile & Ohio passenger train were derailed between here and Mill Creek Wednesday afternoon, killing Edward Williams, of Jackson, Tenn., and probably injuring Engineer A. A. White, of Jackson. Several passengers were badly bruised.

PRIEST INVOLVED IN BLACKMAIL NET

MARTOOGESSIAN IS INDICTED THREE MORE TIMES.

Attempted Robbery and Extortion the Charges—Murderer of Armenian Rug Merchant May Confess.

New York, Aug. 1.—Four indictments now lie against Father Lavont Martoogessian, the Armenian who, it is alleged, sometimes hid aside his priestly robes to practice extortion and blackmail.

The priest is just now the central figure in the conspiracy which, the district attorney seeks to prove, had for its object the robbery of wealthy Armenians and led to the murder of the rug merchant, Tavshanjian, and others who refused to be financially bled.

From the slayer of Tavshanjian, Bedros Hampartoomian, as he is known here, the police hope to secure a confession establishing that the youth unwittingly was the agent of blackmailing terrorists. A trunk which Hampartoomian had in Lowell, Mass., has been brought here, and its contents may throw light on the investigation. Once the assassin is convinced that he was more of a tool than a patriot, the police expect him to make disclosures that will make easy the wiping out of a dangerous gang.

"Death Warrant" Issued.
Of the three additional indictments against Martoogessian brought in by the grand jury Wednesday two charge attempted robbery, as did the original indictment, and one alleges extortion. The latter charges that the priest was responsible for at least one of the blackmailing letters which quickly followed the death of the rug merchant.

The letter was mailed in New York on the afternoon of July 22, the day that Tavshanjian was shot. It was written in red ink in the Armenian language and was signed by the symbol of the terrorists, three hands with daggers uplifted, poised above a red heart. The letter is as follows:

"Gulabi Gulbenkian & Co., Brunswick Building, New York. Death warrant: The executives of the Constantinople Armenian revolutionary terrorists organization condemn to death Haroutian Gulbenkian, Gulabi Gulbenkian and Patrick Gulbenkian, the three brothers who entirely have deaf ears to all appeals for national freedom. Our executive board, having given its decision to Haroutian and Harout Gulbenkian, in America, gives them 24 hours time to decide between their duty and death. Constantinople Armenian revolutionary terrorists organization."

Before this letter came, Haroutian Gulbenkian, who is the accusing witness against the priest, had received a blackmailing letter demanding $25,000, but had not complied with the demand.

Important Witness Found.
The late afternoon developed an important witness when Magdalen Lustrian, a blacksmith, was examined by Assistant District Attorney Manley.

According to information later given out at the district attorney's office, the witness said that he had often attended meetings of the Hunchakist society, at which Martoogessian presided. Continuing, he is alleged to have stated that he knew of five different cases where men had been sent from this country to Europe at the instigation of a man to murder persons. On two occasions, Lustrian said, he had been chosen to do murder, but managed in various ways to shift the responsibility.

Some time ago he was told that he would have to kill Nikolai Milack, because at that time it was believed that Milack was a Turkish spy. According to Mr. Manley, the blacksmith made further startling admissions and furnished corroborative evidence of great importance against the prisoner, who is declared by other Armenians to have been the moving spirit in the blackmailing band.

MINERS' STRIKE IMMINENT.

Authorized by Executive Board of the Pittsburgh District.

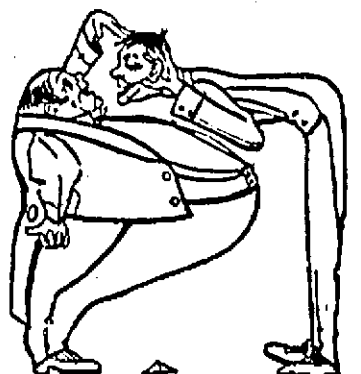

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 1.—The executive board of district No. 6, United Mine Workers of America, which embraces the Pittsburgh district, Wednesday night authorized President Patrick Feehan to call a strike immediately of the miners in this district, alleging that the Pittsburgh Coal company has been violating the wage agreement repeatedly.

President Feehan has announced that he will give the Pittsburgh Coal company a few hours in which to adjust matters. Over 14,000 miners will be affected in the event of a strike.

Schiller Statue for St. Paul.

on May 9, the anniversary of Schiller's birth.

The statue is the work of Prof. Karl Marr and Prof. Ignatius Taschner, of Munich. Karl Marr is well known as an artist of exceptional abilities, and he enjoys the distinction of being the only native born American who has become a professor of the Royal academy. He determined on the design for the statue, and the model was made by Prof. Taschner, a sculptor of wide reputation.

The statue is of heroic size and pictures the great German poet at the prime of life. It is made of standard bronze, and together with its pedestal will stand 14 feet high.

The Schiller statue will stand near the city pond on a high knoll, with a background of small pine trees. The cornerstone for the pedestal was laid May 9, 1905, with impressive ceremonies. The statue will represent an outlay of something over $5,000.

TEMPLES OF SOUTH AFRICA.

Great Areas Enclosed by Solidly Built Stone Walls.

The temple ruins at Rhodesia are puzzlers. The erudite folk used to say they were ancient, but Dr. Randall MacIvor, their latest explorer, says they were built in the Middle Ages. He says the great "elliptical temple" was the fortified residence of the great chief or Monomotapa, whose sway extended over an enormous area and an extensive population. To understand how architectural feats like the finer Rhodesian buildings can have been achieved by the precursors of the modern South African natives it is necessary to assume that in those days there was organization of a far higher character than has obtained in recent years, organization under great chiefs whose power and intelligence were of a relatively high order. From the Portuguese and their records this would appear to have been the case in the days of the Monomotapan empire of the Middle Ages down to the close of the sixteenth century. The organization of labor implied by the elaborate and decorated stone architecture is remarkable. Even more remarkable than the fortified castles are the terrace walls. These stone built walls form irregular concentric rings around the hills upon which the villages were situated, and although structurally simple, cover an enormous area, extending in close formation over a space of upward of 50 square miles.

LAND WEALTH OF NEW YORK.

Greater in Aggregate Than That of Many a Nation.

Few people realize the tremendous land wealth of New York city today, says a writer in Moody's Magazine. The total land valuations of the city by its recent census reached the enormous figure of $5,800,000,000; this is an increase of $400,000,000 in 1907 over 1906, and 1906, in turn, showed an increase of $450,000,000 over 1905. Within a decade the increase has been considerably over 100 per cent. New York real estate is today valued at more than one-twentieth of the entire wealth of the United States. It is greater than the entire wealth of many states and even of many foreign countries. It is 25 per cent. more than the entire wealth of Holland, Spain, Sweden and Norway; 50 per cent. more than Switzerland, Denmark or Portugal; it is one-third that of Italy, one-fourth that of Austria-Hungary, one-fifth that of Russia, one-seventh that of Germany, one-eighth that of France, one-tenth that of Great Britain and Ireland. It is indeed an imperial city in an empire state.

A MISTAKEN IDEA ABOUT ELECTRIC LIGHT

Strangely enough, there are people who feel that electric light is expensive. They seem to argue that because it is so much superior to any other illuminant, therefore it must be more costly to use. It is not!

THE COST IS LOWER

than for any other form of lighting when you consider the efficiency of electric light—the actual candle power available for use—and the saving to decorations in a house in freedom from soot or smudge. It may pay you to investigate—to compare the cost of less desirable forms of illumination. A solicitor will call if you desire.

FACTS ABOUT BOOK OF JOB.

Great Epic Probably Not the Work of One Man.

The creation of the biblical epic was to some extent regarded as a trivial work, like the building of the titanic temple. Believe, then, if you will, that the prologue of Job and the epilogue and the speech of Elihu are things inserted after the original work was composed. But do not suppose that such insertions have that obvious and spurious character which would belong to any insertions in a modern individualistic book. Do not regard the insertions as you would regard a chapter in George Meredith which you afterwards found had not been written by George Meredith, or half a scene in Ibsen which you found had been cunningly sneaked in by Mr. William Acher. Remember that this old world, which made these old poems like the Iliad and Job, always kept the tradition of what it was making. A man could almost leave a poem to his son to be finished as he would have finished it, just as a man could leave a field to his son to be reaped as he would have reaped it. What is called Homeric unity may be a fact of not. "The Iliad may have been written by one man. It may have been written by a hundred men. But let us remember that there was more unity in those times in a hundred men than there is unity now in one man. Then a city was like one man. Now one man is like a city in civil war."—G. K. Chesterton in Putnam's.

A Heroic Remedy.

"They had a hard time with that young woman who went into hysterics, didn't they?" "I should say so! They thought at first they would have to give her an anesthetic, but finally they got her quiet with an epidemic infection of morphia. And now the doctor says she is completely under the influence of the anesthetic."—Baltimore American.

A Daring Inventor.

Inventors balk at no obstacles. One of these agents of progress has devised a plan for inducing women on leaving street cars to step off forward instead of backward. If this invention works the discovery of the secret of perpetual motion will seem less hopeless.
